

Fireplace Installation Policy

Requirements for fireplace installations that vary from instructions and specifications published by the manufacturer

Pikes Peak Regional Building Department does not accept generic letters from manufacturers regarding installation of fireplaces that vary from the published instructions. Required is a letter from the fireplace manufacturer that is site specific and addresses the individual installation variation. This letter must be provided to the inspector to satisfy inspection requirements. Effective May 1, 2003.